

Jimmy Tokeshi

Public Relations Specialist I

BIOGRAPHY

Jimmy Tokeshi is a Public Relations Specialist with the Public Affairs Office for the Department of Public Works. He is the liaison to the Office of Community Beautification and Project Restore. In conjunction with these duties, he serves as the PAO representative to Council Districts 3 and 5.

He comes to the public affairs office with experience in the public, nonprofit and private sectors. Prior to joining the city, he worked as a consultant for Murakawa Communications, a strategic communications and public affairs firm supporting government agencies that plan and build public works projects with specialty in community outreach, construction mitigation and crisis communications.

He has worked as a consultant for numerous government and nonprofit agencies including: Central Basin Municipal Water District, West Basin Municipal Water District, Water Replenishment District of Southern California, Los Angeles Community Development Bank, Asian American Drug Abuse Program and Chinatown Service Center .

He holds a MBA with a concentration in Marketing and a BA in Radio and Television Broadcasting from California State University , Los Angeles . He is a native Angelino, husband and father to two children.